

4

Most Important Things To Know About Your Business Coach:

Akif Tarique

Business Executive with +20 years in Leadership

1 Akif, CPA and MBA has over 20 years in business leadership. His career has awarded him with taking a major corporation public, assisted in three mergers and acquisitions, led a Fortune 500 company in capacity of a divisional Chief Financial Officer. Akif was hailed for establishing strategies for businesses and streamlining operations with savings of millions of dollars. Akif is passionate about sharing his experiences with emerging, growing and mature businesses to partner with them for success.

Trusted Partner, Collaborator

2 Akif has worked with business leaders and acted as a CFO supporting Human Resources, Marketing, Audit, Legal, Compliance, Law, Office of CEO and collaborated to help set strategy to manage expenses and realize efficiencies. He was recognized as one of the most outstanding partners and carried the reputation of building trust and executing through collaboration/partnership at all levels of management. Akif believes that every business is different and begins with an understanding of each business's style, its culture and developmental needs leading to a step by step approach for the business's success and profitability.

Passionate & Inspirational Team Leader

3 Akif has developed high performing teams and retained/recruited the top talent and served as a role model for many. He mentored and coached business units and was awarded and recognized for retention of top talent. Akif strives in creating high performing teams who become trusted members for leadership to rely on. He coaches businesses to find the RIGHT PEOPLE to fill the RIGHT SEATS exhibiting the RIGHT BEHAVIOUR.

Personal triumph

4 Akif came to this country as a refugee from a war-torn region. He accompanied his father, mother and younger brother with nothing but hope for survival. He persevered through difficult times, founded his success based on education and hard work and never looked back. After 25 years, he decided to leave a successful corporate job for a career where he can assist businesses in finding their potential and reaching new heights. He is happily married and is a father to three amazing children and strives to be a perfect role model to each of them.

“Taking individuals and businesses to new heights”